This five bedroom family home on Melrose Avenue has been taken back to brick and thoughtfully brought forward and redesigned by Copperbrick to feel modern yet timeless. Every inch of its 2,200+ sq ft has been considered, crafted and carefully detailed for how we live today.

Step through the front door into a calm, open plan space where light flows uninterrupted from the bayfronted reception to the full width glazed kitchen. A bespoke island sits at its heart, a place to gather, cook, connect. Open the doors and step straight out into a landscaped garden, made for quiet mornings or long evenings with friends.

The first floor is home to the principal suite, a private retreat with, fitted wardrobes and its own sleek en-suite. Two more double bedrooms and a beautifully finished family bathroom complete the floor. Upstairs, the loft level offers flexibility and space, with two further double rooms, a shower room and built-in storage, all kept cool and comfortable with integrated air conditioning.

Throughout, you'll find warm wood floors, underfloor heating, sash windows and subtle smart tech. The home is freehold and entirely rebuilt - new roof, new services, new structure. All that remains is the character.
